SUMMARY/PARTICIPANTS

This two-part series by reporter Nick Beres featured an interview with Col. Lynn Pitts, former head of the Tennessee Highway Patrol, who resigned under fire, accused of committing a crime and disgracing the agency. Pitts bid on a fishing boat that had been confiscated by the agency which was against the law. Never charged with a crime and cleared of wrong-doing he resigned nonetheless. Pitts gave the interview to clear his name and to try to restore honor to the department.

48 HOURS

04/01/06 PREEMPTION

04/08/06 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Love Lost" - focuses on new evidence in the investigation of the July 2005 disappearance of honeymooner George Smith from the cruise ship Brilliance of the Seas. Four young men who had been drinking and gambling with Smith and his bride Jennifer in the hours previous to his disappearance were considered prime suspects. Includes an interview with Dr. Jerry Askins, a podiatrist whose son Josh, a college student from California, was one of them. Josh and his companions told police that they escorted a drunken Smith back to his cabin and left him on his bed and that his wife, Jennifer Hagel Smith, was nowhere to be found. Also includes interviews with George Smith's parents, Maureen and George Sr., and his sister Bree. George Smith is presumed to have gone overboard into the waters off Greece at approximately 4:30am, almost the exact moment when a crew member found Jennifer on the other side of the ship, slumped over on the floor with no memory of what happened. The families of George Smith and Jennifer Hagel Smith plan a joint wrongful death lawsuit against the Royal Caribbean cruise line. (C: Hannah Storm - Sr. P: Judy Tygard - P: Clare Friedland, Mary Noonan Robichaux, Marc Goldbaum, Liza Finley)

04/15/06 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "A Knock On The Door"- in 1982, in the town of Olathe, Kansas, a young banker named David Harmon was bludgeoned to death in his bed. His wife Melinda told authorities that two men intent on robbing the bank where David worked had broken into their home and committed the crime. Investigators believed, but could not prove, that Melinda was involved in a secret affair with family friend Mark Mangelsdorf, and that the two were involved in David's murder. Nearly 20 years later, armed with new forensic technology, police zeroed in on the couple: Mangelsdorf, an independent business consultant in New York City, is now married with five children and lives in Pelham, N.Y.; Melinda, now living in Columbus, Ohio is married to a dentist and is the mother of two. Melinda was tried and found guilty of murder and conspiracy to commit murder. Facing a sentence of life in prison, she offered the prosecutor information about what happened the night of the murder in exchange for a lighter sentence. Melinda and Mangelsdorf, who entered a guilty plea, will be sentenced on May 12. (C: Hannah Storm - Sr. P: Al Briganti - P: Lisa Freed, Deborah Grau)

04/22/06 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "The Marilyn Tapes"- an investigation of the apparent suicide, on August 4, 1962, of actress Marilyn Monroe. In 1982, amid public outcry concerning allegations of conspiracy and a cover-up following Monroe's death, the Los Angeles District attorney was forced to re-examine the evidence. Using the California Public Records Act, 48 HOURS filed a petition and obtained 309 pages of internal documents and approximately five-and-a-half hours of audio taped interviews with key sources. Included are interviews with: Jeanne Carmen, a close friend of Monroe's; Anthony Summers, biographer and journalist who acted as a consultant to 48 HOURS; actor Tony Curtis; Playboy publisher Hugh Hefner; Dr. Hyman Engelberg, Monroe's personal physician; Eunice Murray, her housekeeper; Dr. Steven Karch, a forensic pathologist; Rick Stone and Ken Hunter, ambulance attendants who were dispatched to Monroe's home; and Daryl Gates, former Los Angeles Police Chief. 48 HOURS (continued)

04/29/06 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Deadly Proposal" - in February 1999, Stephanie Pepper, a Louisiana Tech University professor, married David Sims, an accountant, ten years her senior. Two years into their marriage, David and Stephanie were growing apart. In November 2002, Stephanie and her friend, Ginger Steward, visited a local bar where Stephanie met Wayne Guidry, Jr. who claimed to be a professional golfer spending some time in the area hunting during the off season. Less than a week after Stephanie met Guidry, she told David she wanted to separate, and five weeks after the affair began, Stephanie disappeared. With the help of Erik Dufrene, a childhood friend of Wayne Guidry and Guidry's father, Stephanie's body was found in the Jackson Bienville Management Preserve. Guidry was arrested, tried and found guilty of the murder and sentenced to life in prison without parole. He is appealing his conviction. (C: Peter Van Sant - Sr. P: Anthony Batson - P: Peter Henderson, Mead Stone)

CBS RELIGIOUS SPECIAL

04/23/06 "A Fair Harvest"- an interfaith religion program about attempts to achieve dignity for migrant farm-workers, focusing on a story in southwest Florida (Immokalee) about a group of tomato pickers from Central America and Haiti who organized their own workers' coalition. Another story touched upon is the Mt. Olive Pickle Company in North Carolina where, with the help from the National Council of Churches, local councils and the Catholic Diocese of Raleigh, cucumber pickers in the Mt. Olive area succeeded in getting a boost in wages. Discussing these stories and some proposals being made for national immigration legislation are: Rev. Bob Edgar, of the National Council of Churches, and Rev. George Anderson, an editor of the Jesuit magazine "America." The migrant farm-workers' dignity and fairness issues are presented by Robert Mendez and Eusebio Rodriguez, both full-time pickers and part-time union activists for the Coalition of Immokalee Workers. Also included are comments by Lucas Benitez who helped found the Coalition and interviews with: Father Joe Clifford, pastor of St. Columbkille Catholic Church (Ft. Myers); Rev. 05/28/06 "Mafia Cops?"- ex-New York detectives Stephen Caracappa and Louis Eppolito, are charged with the murders of 10 people, murders committed on the orders of a Mafia boss. In an interview, Caracappa calls the charges ludicrous. Includes a portion of an interview ("The Most Feared Gangster" OAD: 09/20/98) with mob boss Anthony "Gaspipe" Casso; and an interview with Ed Hayes, Caracappa's attorney. Louis Eppolito (not interviewed) also contends that he is innocent of all charges. (C: Ed Bradley - P: Michael Radutzky, Tanya Simon, Patti Aronofsky) (OAD: 01/08/06). Includes an update about their conviction.

"Wounds Of War"- some American soldiers severely wounded in combat in Iraq were able to return home, thanks to body armor and improved medicine. Includes interviews with Melissa Stockwell who lost a leg; Brian Newman who lost his left arm; Edward Wade who lost his right arm and sustained serious brain injuries; and Thomas Young who became an anti-war activist after a bullet left him paralyzed. (C: Mike Wallace - P: Robert Anderson) Casey Morgan) (Part I of an expanded version of "Wounds Of War" OAD: 02/12/06)

"Jessica Clements"- an interview with Jessica Clements, a former model, who underwent extensive surgery after a roadside bomb shot shrapnel into her brain. Jessica talks about the surgery that saved her life, the pain she still suffers, and her plans for the future. (This was an expanded version of an interview originally aired as part of the "Wounds Of War" segment. (C: Mike Wallace - P: Robert Anderson, Casey Morgan) (Part II of an expanded version of "Wounds Of War" OAD: 02/12/06)

Andy Rooney Topic: "A Memorial Day Worth Remembering" - what Memorial Day means to Andy Rooney and how he thinks it should be remembered

48 HOURS

05/06/06 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "The Last Dance"- in July 2002, 18-year-old Catherine Woods left her home in Columbus, Ohio to pursue a career as a dancer in New York City. On Sunday of the 2005 Thanksgiving weekend Catherine was savagely murdered. David Haughn, a rap musician and Catherine's live-in boyfriend was the initial suspect. In the fall of 2004 Catherine had met Paul Cortez, a 25-year-old vocalist in a rock band. He called her parents, Jon and Donna Woods, and told them that Catherine was performing at a topless bar, and suggested that she was involved with both drugs and prostitution. Police say that Paul Cortez' fingerprints match one bloody print found in Catherine Woods' apartment and, on December 23, 2005, he was charged with her murder. Prior sexual assault charges against Paul Cortez were dropped, but he is expected to go to trial next fall for the murder of Catherine Woods. If convicted he could be sentenced to life in prison. (C: Erin Moriarty - Sr. P: Peter Schweitzer - P: Patti Aronofsky, David A. Spungen)

05/13/06 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Cheatin' Heart"- Randy Hardison, a successful country songwriter, was assaulted outside his Nashville apartment on June 1, 2002; he died three days later. He had been helping Catina Skipper, an aspiring singer. They began an affair and, according to Hardison's friends, Skipper's husband, Ronnie, threatened Hardison. Police considered Ronnie Skipper to be the prime suspect but, three days into the investigation, a man calling himself 'Julius' called the homicide bureau claiming that he had been hired to beat up Hardison by a Dr. Jones. The lead proved groundless, and Ronnie Skipper and Orlando Smith, one of his employees, were brought to trial. Despite Catina Skipper's claim that she was responsible for Randy Hardison's death, both Skipper and Orlando were found guilty of aggravated assault. After serving seven months in jail, they were released. Catina Skipper was convicted of perjury and served two months in jail. Includes interviews with country music stars Lee Ann Womack and Darryl Worley. (C: Peter Van Sant - Sr. P: Peter Schweitzer - P: Jay Young, Mary Noonan Robichaux)

- 05/20/06 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Duty, Death, Dishonor"- 25-year-old U.S. Army Specialist Richard Davis, from a military family, began his career in the Army as a peacekeeper in Bosnia and was later assigned to the 3rd Infantry Division based in Fort Benning, GA. and took part in the March 2003 invasion of Iraq. Davis survived his tour of duty in Iraq and returned to the U.S. on July 13, 2003. After celebrating his homecoming with four Army buddies in Columbus, GA, Davis disappeared and was listed by the Army as AWOL. In September, two months after Davis' disappearance the Army opened an official investigation and on November 7th, 2003, a tip led to the discovery of his body. Nearly four months later, four soldiers who were last with Davis -- Jacob Burgoyne, Alberto Martinez, Mario Navarette and Douglas Woodcoff -- were arrested. Jacob Burgoyne, previously diagnosed with PTSD (post-traumatic stress disorder), identified Alberto Martinez as the sole killer. Douglas Woodcoff agreed to cooperate with authorities once murder charges against him were dropped. A jury found Alberto Martinez and Mario Navarette guilty of murder with a sentence of life in prison. Jacob Burgoyne, who pled guilty to voluntary manslaughter, received a twenty year sentence. Douglas Woodcoff pled guilty to concealing a death and was sentenced to five years of probation. Both Navarette and Martinez are seeking new trials. (C: Erin Moriarty - Sr. P: Anthony Batson - P: Paul Ryan, Daria Hirsch)
- 05/27/06 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "The Pretender" - a report on Christian Longo, a man on the run, charged with killing his wife and three children, who assumed the identity of Michael Finkel, an award-winning New York Times reporter. Finkel, who admitted to fabricating a portion of a story on child slavery in West Africa, was subsequently fired by the newspaper. Curious to learn why someone would want to steal his identity, Finkel met with Longo and, based on conversations, a series of letters and phone calls, put together an account of events leading up to the murders and Longo's apprehension. Christian Longo was tried, found guilty of all four murders and sentenced to death. He has since changed his story and is working on an appeal. The broadcast was based on an excerpt of "True Story: Murder, Memoir, Mea Culpa" a book on the murders written by Michael Finkel. (C: Maureen Maher - Sr. P: Peter Schweitzer - P: Miguel Sancho, Chris Young) (OAD: 05/31/05)
- 05/30/06 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Deadly Obsession"- Carl "Charlie" Brandt, a Big Pine Key, Fla. man appeared to be devoted to his wife of 17 years, Teri, and close to her family. When Hurricane Ivan threatened the Florida Keys in September 2004, the Brandts sought refuge in the Orlando home of Teri's niece, Michelle Jones, a television executive at the Golf Channel. A few days after the Brandts' arrival, police discovered the bodies of: Teri Brandt who had been stabbed to death; Michelle Jones, also dead and brutally dismembered; and Charlie, who had hanged himself in the garage. Lead investigator Rob Hemmert's first clue came when Brandt's older sister Angela revealed that in 1971, Charlie, then 13, had shot both his father and mother in their Ft. Wayne, Ind. home. Brandt's mother, eight months pregnant, died of her injuries. Because Brandt was a juvenile, state authorities never charged him with murder but sent him to a mental institution for a little more than a year. Further investigation indicated that Brandt had committed a number of other murders. Michelle's parents, Bill and Mary Lou are pushing for a public database to include anyone of any age who killed another person, regardless of the circumstances. Investigator Rob Hemmert is trying to win the release of Charlie Brandt's mental health records in an effort to understand the motivation of a serial killer. 06/25/06 "The Oil Sands"-- a report on the oil boom in Alberta, Canada, where the oil sands produce a million barrels a day and hold reserves eight times those of Saudi Arabia. The oil companies, which pay some of the highest salaries in North America, are faced with problems including the shortage of labor and charges by environmentalists that they are destroying both the atmosphere and the land. (C: Bob Simon - P: Draggan Mihailovich) (OAD: 01/22/06)

"Rex" (Parts I & II) - followup to "Musically Speaking" (OAD: 09/28/03), a report on Rex Lewis-Clack, an eight-year-old boy whose incredible musical ability coexists with blindness and severe mental impairment. Part I of the followup consists of recent interviews with Rex, now ten-years-old; his mother, Cathleen and David Pinto, one of Rex's piano teachers. Part II consists of expanded interviews with Rex's mother Cathleen, and with Derek Paravincini, another musical savant and his teacher Adam Ockelford. (C: Lesley Stahl - P: Shari Finkelstein) (expanded version of "Rex" OAD: 10/23/05)

Andy Rooney Topic: "When Did This Become Art?" - modern art in public places (OAD: 01/02/05)

48 HOURS

- 06/03/06 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Secrets & Lies On Grapevine Lake" - in April 2002, the body of successful real estate agent David Nixon of Grapevine, Texas, was discovered in a storm drain in a nearby town. He had been shot in the heart and his remains burned beyond recognition. At the time of the murder Nixon and his live-in girlfriend Tracy Frame were in the process of splitting up and were fighting over the house where they both lived. Police investigating the crime focused on Frame who denied any wrongdoing. Three years after Nixon's death, Tracy Frame was tried, found guilty of murder and sentenced to 40 years in prison. She will be eligible for parole in 20 years. She is appealing the verdict. Includes interviews with: Tracy Frame; Donna Lella, David Nixon's first wife; Nicholas, their son; Jerry Vowell, a used car dealer, who was scheduled to meet David Nixon the night he disappeared; Detective Larry Hallmark; Donald Feare, Tracy's defense attorney; and the prosecutor, Assistant D.A. Sean Colston. (C: Troy Roberts - Sr. P: Anthony Batson - P: Peter Henderson) (OAD: 10/22/05)
- 06/06/06 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Sex, Lies And The Doctor's Wife" - Karen Tipton, a mother of two and the wife of prominent psychiatrist Dr. David Tipton, was found stabbed to death in her Decatur, Alabama home in March 1999. Police quickly ruled out the husband as a suspect, and a month later arrested 24-year-old Daniel Wade Moore, who worked for the alarm company that had installed a security system in the Tipton home. Moore, a drug user, had initially confessed to his uncle to being present at the scene of the murder, but later retracted his statement. Despite the lack of physical evidence, Moore was tried, convicted and sentenced to death row. Eight months following the conviction, Moore's defense attorneys discovered that prosecutors had withheld potentially conclusive information in the case including an FBI report suggesting that Karen was having multiple affairs, and may have known her killer. In a stunning reversal in February 2005, the same judge who sentenced Moore to death released him from prison. The state appealed the decision and Daniel Moore is now awaiting a new trial that could set him free. (C: Erin Moriarty - Sr. P: Pater Schweitzer - P: Katherine Davis, Marc B. Goldbaum, Susan Mallie) (OAD: 11/12/05)
- 06/10/06 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Scared To Death"- Jim and Vickie Barton, a Springboro, Ohio couple owned and lived on a horse farm. Jim was lieutenant with the Springboro police department, with aspirations of becoming police chief, and Vickie was a head nurse at the local hospital. In April 1995, Jim came home from work and found Vickie had been shot to death. For three years there were virtually no leads in the case and no arrests, but in 1998 Gary Henson, a career criminal, told police that his half-brother, Will Phelps shot Vickie by accident while he and an unidentified accomplice were in the process of burglarizing the Barton home. Four months later, Phelps committed suicide. In 2003, a county-wide cold case team was formed to take a second look at Vickie's murder. The squad discovered a portion of audiotape from Jim's 911 call which revealed a discrepancy in his testimony. Subsequently, Gary Henson told police that Jim Barton was responsible for his wife's death because he had sent Phelps to the house to scare Vicki in hopes of driving her to live in town where Jim supposedly needed to live to become police chief. A jury found Jim Barton guilty of involuntary manslaughter and he will serve at least 15 years in prison. He plans to appeal the verdict. There is no legal requirement for the Springboro Police Chief to live within city limits. (C: Peter Van Sant - Sr. P: Anthony Batson - P: Jay Young, Jamie Stolz) (OAD: 10/29/05)

- 06/17/06 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Written In Blood" (9:00-11:00p)- an expanded version of "Written In Blood" (OAD: 09/25/04), a report on the brutal 1994 murders of the Rafay family -- Sultana Rafay, her husband Tariq and their autistic daughter, Basma -- in Bellevue, Washington, focusing on the pursuit and arrest of the two primary suspects: Atif Rafay, the only surviving family member, and his friend Sebastian Burns. Focuses on the key role of the Canadian Mounted Police in the investigation and the elaborate sting operation put in place by the CMP in order to obtain confessions from Rafay and Burns. Having taken refuge in Canada, Rafay and Burns, who had written the script for a film called "The Great Despisers," whose plot paralleled the 1994 murders, were extradited to Seattle to face murder charges. They were tried in November 2003, found guilty of murder and sentenced to three consecutive life terms -- one for each life that was taken. The Burns family has launched a campaign for a new trial. Includes interviews with the two accused men; Carol and Dave Burns, Sebastian's parents; Jimmy Myoshi, a friend of the suspects; Detective Bob Thompson; Sgt. Haslett, of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police; Jeff Robinson and Song Richardson, defense attorneys for Sebastian Burns; Roger Davidheiser and James Konat, King County's prosecuting team. (C: Peter Van Sant - Sr. P: Nancy Kramer - P: Nancy Kramer, Jenna Jackson, Gayane Keshishyan) (OAD: 08/06/05)
- 06/24/06 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Back From The Dead" - a report from Rockhampton, Queensland, Australia where a community lived in fear of a serial killer following the disappearance of nine-year-old Keyra Steinhart; 14-year-old Natasha Ryan; 19-year-old Sylvia Benedetti; 37-year-old Beverly Leggo and 39-year-old Julie Turner. Police picked up Leonard "Lenny" Fraser, a meat cutter at a local slaughterhouse, who had previously served prison time for assault. Fraser claimed innocence, but a search of his car revealed traces of Keyra Steinhart's blood as well as other human blood. Fraser led police to the nine-year-old's body but refused to admit to the other murders. Subsequently, police received an offer of help from Allan Quinn, a con man and a fellow prison inmate of Fraser's who not only got Fraser to confess to the killings, but to lead police to the bodies of three of his other victims. Despite the fact that Natasha Ryan's grave was not located, Fraser was brought to trial for all the murders. On the 12th day of the trial it was revealed that Natasha Ryan was not a murder victim but had run away from home with a boyfriend and had been living in hiding nearby. At the conclusion of the trial Fraser was convicted and sentenced to prison for the other killings. (C: Bill Lagattuta - Sr. P: Al Briganti - P: Chuck Stevenson, Doug Longhini) (OAD: 09/24/05)
- 06/27/06 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Strange Truth"- in the early morning hours of March 21, 2003, Romona "Mona" Krotine left an office party just outside Cleveland, Ohio, and was never seen alive again. Nearly 24 hours later, she was found in the trunk of her car, beaten and shot to death. At first, police suspected a botched robbery because Mona was carrying the cash receipts from working at a concession earlier that day. Subsequently, Mona's husband, Jeffrey, began acting suspiciously, and the focus of the police investigation shifted to a domestic murder. Authorities believed that Mona had actually returned home after the party and that Jeffrey, having killed her, attempted to cover up the crime by destroying evidence, including portions of bedroom carpet and a large headboard. The case, largely circumstantial, went to trial twice, both times resulting in a hung jury. The jury at a third trial found Krotine not guilty. Officially, the murder of Mona Krotine remains an open case, but Jeff Krotine can never be retried for his wife's murder. (C: Susan Spencer - Sr. P: Anthony Batson - P: Paul LaRosa, Taigi Smith) (OAD: 10/08/05)

Age of Target Child Audience: from 2 years to 11 years

Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming. This program is anchored by Sportacus, a fit and agile hero, whose "kryptonite" is sugar, which makes him instantly lethargic. Sportacus and the program's cast of child characters are challenged in each episode with an issue or dilemma, and are opposed in their attempts to complete their mission by Robbie Rotten, who seeks to return Lazytown to its former lazy ways. The program seeks to impart to preschool and early school-aged children the importance of healthy living, and to help them understand the value of developing sound eating and physical exercise habits, while also providing them positive messages about friendship, empathy, self-respect, truthfulness and other age-appropriate life lessons. This program is specifically designed to further the educational and informational needs of children, has educating and informing children as a significant purpose, and otherwise meets the definition of Core Programming as specified in the Commission's rules.

Saturday 9:30-10:00 AM	13	0
Length of Program: 30 (minutes)
Age of Target Child Audience: from 2 years to 5 years

Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming. Go, Diego, Go is an interactive, informational series designed for preschool and early school-age children, in which Diego, a Latino eight year old who loves nature and animals, teams up with viewers to learn scientific facts and develop strategies in order to rescue animals in each episode. In addition to imparting knowledge about animals, their characteristics and habitats, the program also introduces children to Spanish words, which the viewer is asked to then use strategically, and to Latin American music, folktales and traditions. The educational objectives of the program are to provide children imaginative stories, through which they can develop knowledge of and concern for animals, their habitats, our environment, and to introduce them to another language and culture. By actively involving children in the resolution of each challenge, the program also seeks to impart to them the importance of strategic thinking, cooperation and teamwork in problem-solving. This program is specifically designed to further the educational and informational needs of children, has educating and informing children as a significant purpose, and otherwise meets the definition of Core Programming as specified in the Commission's rules.

Title of Program #1: LAZYTOWN			Origination Network
Days/Times Program Regularly Scheduled:	Total times to be aired	Length of Program	Age of Target Child Audience:
Saturday 9:00-9:30 AM	11	30 (minutes)	from 2 to 11 (years)
Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming. This program is anchored by Sportacus, a fit and agile hero, whose "kryptonite" is sugar, which makes him instantly lethargic. Sportacus and the program's cast of child characters are challenged in each episode with an issue or dilemma, and are opposed in their attempts to complete their mission by Robbie Rotten, who seeks to return Lazytown to its former lazy ways. The program seeks to impart to preschool and early school-aged children the importance of healthy living, and to help them understand the value of developing sound eating and physical exercise habits, while also providing them positive messages about friendship, empathy, self-respect, truthfulness and other age-appropriate life lessons. This program is specifically designed to further the educational and informational needs of children, has educating and informing children as a significant purpose, and otherwise meets the definition of Core Programming as specified in the Commission's rules.

Title of Program #2: GO, DIEGO, GO			Origination Network
Days/Times Program Regularly Scheduled:	Total times to be aired	Length of Program	Age of Target Child Audience:
Saturday 9:30-10:00 AM	11	30 (minutes)	from 2 to 5 (years)
Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming. Go, Diego, Go is an interactive, informational series designed for preschool and early school-age children, in which Diego, a Latino eight year old who loves nature and animals, teams up with viewers to learn scientific facts and develop strategies in order to rescue animals in each episode. In addition to imparting knowledge about animals, their characteristics and habitats, the program also introduces children to Spanish words, which the viewer is asked to then use strategically, and to Latin American music, folktales and traditions. The educational objectives of the program are to provide children imaginative stories, through which they can develop knowledge of and concern for animals, their habitats, our environment, and to introduce them to another language and culture. By actively involving children in the resolution of each challenge, the program also seeks to impart to them the importance of strategic thinking, cooperation and teamwork in problem-solving. This program is specifically designed to further the educational and informational needs of children, has educating and informing children as a significant purpose, and otherwise meets the definition of Core Programming as specified in the Commission's rules.

Scheduled:
Saturday 9:00-9:30 AM	3	30 (minutes)	from 5 to 7 (years)

Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming. The animated and Emmy award winning series, "The New Adventures of Madeline," is based on the classic books by Ludwig Bemelman. Narrated in rhyme by reknown actor Christopher Plummer, the episodes follow the everyday and imaginative adventures of a little French girl and her friends. The Madeline stories both portray and reflect on some of the social learning experiences valuable for children in the early and middle periods of childhood. The series also explores many of the social lessons related to such themes as honesty, fairness, respect for others, self-reliance, and a number of other prosocial concepts so important for developing children. This program is specifically designed to further the educational and informational needs of children, has educating and informing children as a significant purpose, and otherwise meets the definition of Core Programming as specified in the Commission's rules.

Title of Program #8: SABRINA: THE ANIMATED SERIES			Origination Network
Days/Times Program Regularly Scheduled:	Total times to be aired	Length of Program	Age of Target Child Audience:
Saturday 9:30-10:00 AM	3	30 (minutes)	from 7 to 12 (years)

Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming. The animated series, "Sabrina," involves the adventures of a modern, early adolescent girl who is part human and part witch. While Sabrina is not your typical girl – she has magical powers that must be kept secret and also under control – the familial, social, peer-group, and school-related issues she experiences all serve as educational and instructional life-lessons for viewers, as they reflect many of the same learning experiences and teenage challenges faced by children today. This program is specifically designed to further the educational and informational needs of children, has educating and informing children as a significant purpose, and otherwise meets the definition of Core Programming as specified in the Commission's rules.

Title of Program #9: TROLLZ			Origination Network
Days/Times Program Regularly Scheduled:	Total times to be aired	Length of Program	Age of Target Child Audience:
Saturday 10:00-10:30 AM	3	30 (minutes)	from 8 to 12 (years)

Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming. TROLLZ is an animated series about five teenage girls growing up in a magic and colorful world, who live by the credo B.F.F.I. – Best Friends for Life. The magic in their lives is interwoven into real-world type experiences through which they learn to engage in problem solving, creative thinking, and cooperative strategy skills. The series also provides an opportunity for the five girls to learn how to cope with some of the social and emotional issues of self-esteem relating to physical features and other personal attributes, emerging friendships and peer-group relationships, and other experiences found in Trollzopolis. This program is specifically designed to further the educational and informational needs of children, has educating and informing children as a significant purpose, and otherwise meets the definition of Core Programming as specified in the Commission's rules.

Title of Program #10: HORSELAND			Origination Network
Days/Times Program Regularly Scheduled:	Total times to be aired	Length of Program	Age of Target Child Audience:
Saturday 10:30-11:00 AM	3	30 (minutes)	from 9 to 11 (years)

Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming. HORSELAND is an animated series about five girls and two boys who live in spectacular countryside that houses a farm called Horseland. Each of these main characters has a special horse whose personality is similar to its owner's. Horseland and its unique approach of integrating the personality of the main characters and animals serve to reinforce prosocial themes. Horseland is also a "coming of age" series in which viewers experience and learn from the social interactions, hopes, dreams, and even fears of this group of culturally diverse adolescents. From this background, the experiences of sharing, caring, compromise, friendship, respect, and competition emerge to provide the young viewers with social and emotional guidelines for better understanding many of the life-lessons they need to learn as they grow and develop. This program is specifically designed to further the educational and informational needs of children, has educating and informing children as a significant purpose, and otherwise meets the definition of Core Programming as specified in the Commission's rules.

Title of Program #11: CAKE			Origination Network
Days/Times Program Regularly Scheduled:	Total times to be aired	Length of Program	Age of Target Child Audience:
Saturday 11:00-11:30 AM	3	30 (minutes)	from 8 to 12 (years)
Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming. CAKE is a live-action show-within-a-show about a teenage girl by the name of Cake, who, with the help of three friends, produces a cable access show. The series is designed to provide the viewers with two integrated levels of educational and informational experiences. On one level, each episode provides actual instruction regarding specific activities, with hands-on examples related to the design and use of various fabrics, the making of clothes, the crafting of useful home, school, play, and household items, and other forms of creative expression. The other level in the episode provides an opportunity for the viewers to learn about social and emotional themes such as the value of honesty, the importance of personal worth and self-esteem, the meaning of friendship, the value of having a healthy life-style, and other prosocial concepts that are developmentally appropriate for this age-group. This program is specifically designed to further the educational and informational needs of children, has educating and informing children as a significant purpose, and otherwise meets the definition of Core Programming as specified in the Commission's rules.

NELSON MANDELA TO BE FEATURED IN CBS CARES PSA CAMPAIGN HIGHLIGHTING TOLERANCE AND DIVERSITY

Campaign To Debut During "60 Minutes" on Sunday, April 30

PSAs Will Be Made Available Internationally and Domestically To Interested Broadcasters or Cable Operators

In a groundbreaking development, Nelson Mandela, the former President of South Africa and Nobel Peace Prize winner whose fight for equality was instrumental in ending apartheid, will be featured in a special series of Public Service Announcements airing on the CBS Television Network, it was announced today by Leslie Moonves, President and CEO, CBS Corporation. The messages, which will highlight the universal importance of tolerance and diversity, will debut during "60 Minutes" on Sunday, April 30, 2006 and will run for a year in prime time and other dayparts. The PSAs are part of the Network's acclaimed CBS Cares initiative and mark the first time that CBS Cares PSAs feature non-CBS entertainment, news or sports talent.

"Nelson Mandela is among the most admired and important figures of the 20th Century, and we are extremely honored to have him participating in this campaign," said Moonves. "Throughout his life he has fought for justice and equality, and the sacrifices he made in pursuing those ideals helped unite the world, and helped end a brutal legacy of oppression. He is symbolic of the struggle against racism and bigotry, and his participation in these PSAs will have a powerful impact."

Mandela's involvement in the project is significant because it is a very rare exception to the policy announced in June 2004 that he was retiring from public life and would not be able to participate in new projects. The timing of the PSA debut is significant in that it was this week in 1994 when the first democratic election was held in South Africa. April 27 is celebrated as "Freedom Day," because it was the first day that all adults, regardless of race, could vote.

These unique and important messages, recorded recently, consist of two 30 second and two 15 second spots. They feature Mandela addressing the audience in a very personal and direct way on the subject of tolerance for people of different colors, religions and national origins.

Given Mandela's rare involvement and the universal message the PSAs convey, CBS will provide versions of the messages to any broadcaster or cable operator domestically or internationally that wishes to run them. CBS will provide versions of the PSA without the CBS logo which will allow entities to brand them as their own. The distribution will be done through CBS Paramount International Television, which distributes CBS programming in nearly 200 countries.

The PSAs will also be shared with CBS's 200 + owned and affiliated stations across the country for broadcast in local markets. Stations will be able to co-brand the spots with their call letters and logos. In addition, radio versions of the PSAs will be provided to the 179 CBS Radio stations as well as to the more than 500 stations that constitute the CBS Radio Network. They will also be streamed on CBSNews.com and on CBSCares.tv.

Mandela was the first President of South Africa to be elected in fully-representative democratic elections. Before his presidency he was the leader of the antiapartheid movement and was imprisoned for 27 years by the apartheid government. Upon his release, he helped steer South Africa to a policy of reconciliation, and – against all odds -- facilitated a peaceful transition to a fully-representative democracy for the country. In 1993 he was awarded the Nobel Peace Prize jointly with F.W. De Klerk, and in 1994 he was elected his country's first black president. Since retiring from office, Mandela has continued to be an internationally admired figure and moral authority of immense stature.

The Chris Matthews Show

DESCRIPTION: "The Chris Matthews Show" is a half-hour weekend public affairs roundtable that examines the week's most compelling topics in the news. The show is based in Washington D.C., and is produced by NBC News.

From the most controversial political issues to general interest topics, "The Chris Matthews Show" brings viewers up close and behind the scenes of the top stories of the week. Every episode provides viewers with information that they won't be able to get elsewhere and the opportunity to take away a different perspective on the latest news stories.

Each week, Matthews leads a roundtable of reporters, editors, and political news columnists. "The Chris Matthews Show" examines the vast world of political opinion and policy and features a variety of topics of interest ranging from domestic and foreign policy and the war on terrorism, to hot topics of the day including movies, events and pop culture.

As an author, international journalist and no-nonsense political commentator, Matthews' expertise in politics and government is widely recognized. In addition to hosting MSNBC's "Hardball", he was until recently a nationally syndicated columnist for the San Francisco Chronicle and the author of best-selling books such as "Now Let Me Tell You What I Really Think" (2001), "Hardball" (1988), and "Kennedy and Nixon" (1996). Prior to entering journalism, he served as White House aide and speechwriter to former president Jimmy Carter as well as senior aide to Speaker of the House, Thomas O'Neill, Jr.

SUMMARY/PARTICIPANTS

This special highlighted Arlington National Cemetery, the final home of explorers and medical pioneers, of civil rights activists and astronauts, of Presidents and authors and artists. The cemetery is also home of individuals we all know and those we will never know who served and sacrificed, not for wealth or power, but for the country they beloved in. This special is a treasury of rich untold stories that span American history – stories of men and women whose courage, commitment and spirit have uniquely defined America generation after generation. It is a story of hope and inspiration for all of us.

This special sports special focused on local implications of the NFL Draft, centering on the Tennessee Titans, their needs for the coming season and likely draft selections, as well as the outlook for the coming season. The special also looked briefly at the Music City Marathon that was run Saturday, April 29th. Sports anchor, Eric Yutzy, and freelancer Brandon Fisher hosted the special.

NewsChannel 5 produced a special edition of the Morning News with coverage of the Music City Marathon. The coverage began at 6:00 a.m. with live reports from the start of the race. NewsChannel 5 reporter Nick Beres and Amy Rao reported live from the fields, and news crews were stationed at Centennial Park, at the round-about, at the half-marathon finish, and at the marathon finish. At 9:00 a.m., coverage moved to NewsChannel 5+ that continued coverage until the first male and first female runners crossed the finish line.
